Title VI is a law.

you must be treated the same as others. Your race, color, national origin, sex, age and disability do not matter. It does not matter if you come from another country. It does not matter if you are poor or speak another language.

The California Department of Transportation gets money to build and fix bridges. It gets money to build and fix roads too. The California Department of Transportation pays companies to do some of the work. This work will help all people in California. The California Department of Transportation and the companies must follow the law.

If you are not treated the same as others, because of your race, color, national origin, sex, age or disability; what country you come from; because you are poor or because you speak another language; write a letter.

Tell how you were not treated the same as others. Give your name, address and phone number. You must sign and date your letter. Send your letter to:

California Department of Transportation, Civil Rights
Discrimination Complaint Investigation Unit
1823 14th Street, MS79, Sacramento, California 95814
Toll Free Number: 1 866 810 6346

This publication will be made available in alternate formats: Braille, large print, computer disk or audio version upon request by calling the California Department of Transportation, Civil Rights, Title VI Program at (916) 324-0817 or 7-1-1 (TTY)

Arnold Schwarzenegger
Governor, State of California
Dale Bonner
Secretary, Business, Transportation and Housing Agency
Will Kempton, Director
Department of Transportation
Olivia Fonseca
Deputy Director, Civil Rights