Report No. 45.

Date: October 11, 2008

October 06, 2008
Champions mtg –Neither Maroney nor Terpstra attended – nobody prepared to lead it, so I asked for items and then ended it
Pursell out of the office today, Lotus Notes down all day

China call – 1630 Hope to start new tack procedure tomorrow, need to watch closely to be sure that the procedure is being followed, $$ needed right away to augment the Mactec contract or folks will leave., What is status of ZPMC blast and paint submittal? Check (later found it had not been submitted yet), Fit lug – RFI- Did the reply go out? Check (later found it went out the next day , 10/7)

October 07, 2008
Called Steve Altman about the Mactec contract. Asked him to elevate to Stolarski, Pirplow, or Anziano if needed

Lotus notes still down

Cost issues – Goodwin, LeJune, ZPMC, and Nippon
Cable – mockup, final analysis, angles of movement
OIW – plates – fit for purpose analysis
Csaddle castability, E2 Resteel issues

October 08, 2008
Lotus Notes still down
0800 Cable Eng mtg –#49 – Discussed Sub 799 – comment on DL moment diagram compared to Suspender forces , Moment diagram, RFI 1102 relaxed the requirement – friction between TYL and ABF on suspender issues

Core mtg 0900 –
Nippon S-wire – discussed possible fall back to WireCo, Godwin- cost escalation letter – How to handle? – ABF discussing with their board – Gary P elevated to Sacto, Resteel problems at E2 – Duxbury working with ABF on the fly, New bouys being assembled, Lane closures for concrete pour today
Long discussion of DL moment vs. Suspender force vs. profile – appears ABF is not matching due to constraint they have imposed on matching profile exactly – TYL feels they need to allow +/- 30 mm

Outside discussion – Marwan to get a quote to analyze the Saddle castability issue
Cable mockup – talk to Ade – plan to write a letter to drop it

October 09, 2008
Woods SL today

1600 China call – Nothing noted.

October 10, 2008
Woods SL again today
