FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LA River Bike Path Detour to be Implemented November 16, 2015

WHAT'S HAPPENING: Closure of a one-mile segment of the Los Angeles River Bike Path.

WHERE: The Los Angeles River Bike Path between Riverside Drive and just south of the SR-134 overcrossing in the City of Los Angeles.

WHEN: The closure will be in place 24/7 beginning Monday, November 16, 2015, at 6 a.m. for an undetermined period. Updates on the duration of the closure will be provided as details become available.

WHY: The bike path in this area passes through an active freeway construction zone where bridge widening is underway. The closure is a safety measure to protect bike path users.

DETOUR: A signed detour is posted that directs bike path users to Zoo Drive and Western Heritage Way. See map below or view the detour on an interactive map here.

ABOUT THE PROJECT: This $116 million project is adding 2.7 miles of carpool lanes in each direction between the SR-134 and Magnolia Boulevard in the cities of Burbank and Glendale. The project will be completed in 2017. Information about the project is here.

Construction and closure schedules are subject to change.
