Closures on Pacific Coast Highway (SR-1) Due To Private Contractor

Malibu – The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) has closed one lane of north- and southbound Pacific Coast Highway (SR-1) south of Big Rock Drive due to roadway damage caused by a private contractor. The closure could be in place until 8 a.m. tomorrow morning.

The contractor was working on a residential construction project that is not related to Caltrans' temporary wave breaker project at Las Tunas Beach.

Motorists should expect delays and consider alternative routes.

Motorists are advised to Slow For the Cone Zone and Move Over. It's the law.
