

East Blithedale Update

March 21, 2008

Construction crews have finished building the new retaining wall that separates the off-ramp from the adjacent homes.

Crews are now building a new, state-of-the-art drainage system. Once that is complete, work on the new exit lane should begin. We expect to start the initial grading sometime in early April.