FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lincoln Avenue Undercrossing to Re-Open

San Rafael – The Lincoln Avenue Undercrossing, closed for the past several months to accommodate construction, will reopen on the morning of May 15, 2008. Caltrans closed the undercrossing in November in order to safely build new highway lanes above the street. No further long-term closures of the undercrossing will be necessary.

However, on the morning of May 19, Caltrans must again close the nearby Linden Lane Undercrossing, in order to safely finish work on the new highway lanes. The Linden Lane Undercrossing will stay closed for a period of 140 days, roughly until early October.
