UPDATE –

“Traffic Switch” on Carquinez Bridge DELAYED for One More Week

Crockett – The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) announced today the “traffic switch” scheduled for the Carquinez Bridge for Monday, September 12, has been delayed for one week. The switch will now occur on SUNDAY, September 25, at 12:01 am.

The “traffic switch” will re-route eastbound traffic from the 1958 bridge to the 1927 bridge for a period of about two months. During that time, construction crews will replace the deck on the approach to the 1958 bridge. Westbound traffic will not be affected.
