

June 5, 2006
Russian River Bridge update

- Contractors demolished the three remaining piers, and transported the concrete and rebar for recycling.
- Geyserville High School students visited the job site and learned about the engineering and building process for the new bridge.
- Crews tacked and welded a 100 foot pile at Bent 8.

