

STATE ROUTE 128/RUSSIAN RIVER BRIDGE COMMUNITY INFORMATIONAL MEETING

The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) invites all to attend the Community Informational Meeting about the Russian River Bridge on State Route 128.

The Bridge was structurally damaged during the 2006 New Year Weekend storm and it remains closed for public safety during damage assessment and repair.

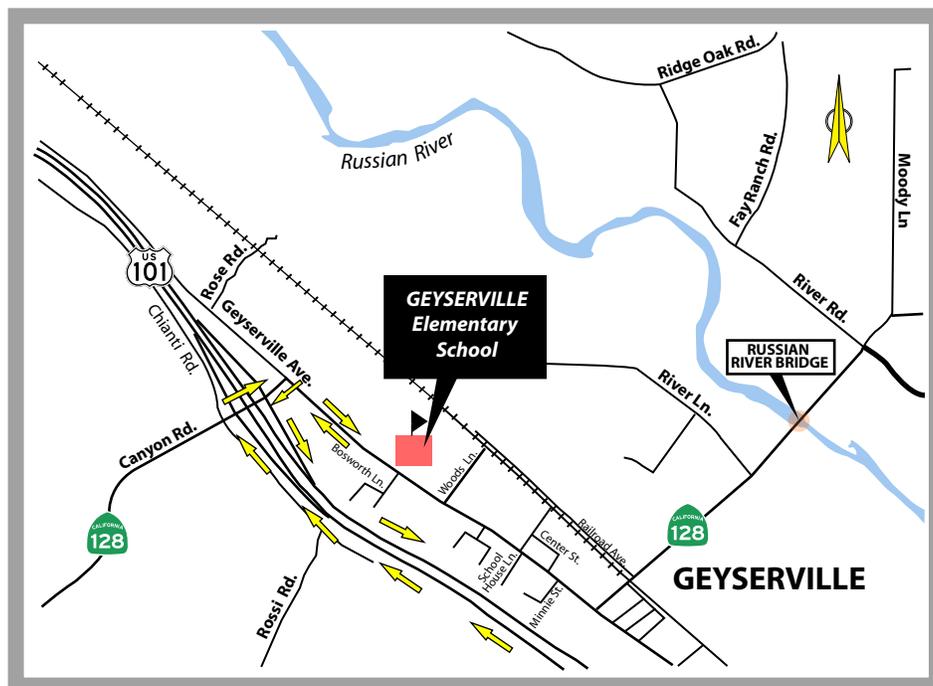

The meeting is designed to inform community residents and business leaders of the coordinated response effort of local government and Caltrans regarding the emergency bridge repair and detour. Caltrans staff will be available with informational displays for the first hour, followed by a project presentation and question session.

Local government officials plan to attend.
