

Application for Caltrans District 4 Pedestrian Advisory Committee

The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) District 4 is accepting applications for membership on the District 4 Pedestrian Advisory Committee (PAC). The PAC will advise Caltrans staff on pedestrian issues to ensure District 4 projects, activities, and operations meet the needs of pedestrian travelers on the state highway system within the District whenever possible. Applicants must either reside or work for a public agency in one of the nine San Francisco Bay Area counties: San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Alameda, Contra Costa, Solano, Napa, Sonoma or Marin. Each member is appointed for a two-year term or the remaining duration of the term if replacing a current member. The PAC meets on the fourth Wednesday of the month from 10:00 to 12:00. Meetings occur quarterly and are held in March, June, September, and December. (The December meeting will likely occur in early December or January.) Note that applications must be received by Friday, November 1st, 2013.
