

Southern California Region Small Business Council

Representing the Counties of:
San Bernardino, Riverside,
Orange, Los Angeles & Ventura

Criteria for Membership

Applicant members should represent a small business trade association or stakeholder group, organized under the laws of California and having a small business interest in Caltrans contracts and projects; specifically in the areas of: construction, commodities, architecture, engineering and environmental.

The purpose of Caltrans Southern California Region Small Business Council is to provide a forum for trade associations and transportation stakeholder groups, representing small business and Disadvantaged Business Enterprise firms, to comment and provide feedback on Caltrans practices that affect small business utilization on Caltrans contracts and projects.

NEW MEETING LOCATION

Date: October 16, 2013

Time: 10:30am-12:30pm

Location: Norman F. Feldheym Public Library, 555 West 6th Street San Bernardino, CA 92410

Parking is available at the library public on North East Street, San Bernardino, California

Register online at:

<http://social-smallbusinesscouncil.eventbrite.com>

Does your trade organization or stakeholder group represent small businesses and/or Disadvantaged Business Enterprise firms with strong interests in transportation within the areas of construction, architecture, engineering, environmental, and commodities? Do you provide services or product as part of the transportation economy? Please consider attending the informational meeting of Caltrans' Southern California Region Small Business Council representing the Counties of San Bernardino, Riverside, Orange, Los Angeles and Ventura.

This meeting is an opportunity to find out more information on how to become a Regional Small Business Council Member.

Please register online at:

<http://social-smallbusinesscouncil.eventbrite.com>

Or call: (909) 383-6482