RESPONSIBILITIES

State Transportation Agency Responsibilities

State Departments of Transportation, can administer individual TCSP Program projects as well as FHWA Division Offices. TCSP Program grantees must meet Federal-aid requirements when implementing their grants. It is the responsibility of the administering agency to ensure these requirements are met.

FHWA Division Office Responsibilities

1. Administer, monitor, and evaluate the grants awarded under this program.
2. Administer and coordinate the distribution of submissions to necessary field and HQ offices.
3. Review submissions from their respective states.

FHWA Headquarters Program Office Program management including program evaluation, establishing and coordinating strategic priorities, outreach, and research.

1. Administer the program - filing, distribution, data collection, etc.