March 2002 - Present:
I am a construction consultant and expert witness on public, private and military construction contracts for law firms such as Rutan and Tucker and the Caltrans Legal Department. Other projects include PCM, (Construction management: design/build and general contracting), Grant Street improvements in Los Angeles and industry expert for the Contractors State Licensing Board.

1994 - 2002: Core Operations Manager – Sully-Miller Contracting Company
As the Heavy Highway Estimator-Project Manager I was ultimately elevated to Core Operations Manager. During this time period I was also project manager for the $30 million Caltrans Freeway Rehabilitation project, the 60/215 freeway in Riverside.

1990 - 1994: Vice President – Engineering Division: A. J. Diani Construction Company
My duties and leadership included the management and estimated operations of major projects in central California for Caltrans and Vandenberg Air Force Base. I was also a hazardous waste supervisor.

1981 - 1990: Vice President – Major Projects Griffith Company, Los Angeles
I developed an estimating team, hazardous waste team, company wide computer estimating system and a full Caltrans freeway construction division, (accounting personnel, estimating team, field supervision and crews).

1977 - 1981: Chief Estimator – Granite Construction Company, Fresno - Coalinga
My responsibilities included developing an estimating team, estimating major projects and supervising the projects to completion.

1960 - 1977: Vice President/District Manager – Griffith Company
I began as a project engineer and was promoted to project manager, and then vice president, of various freeway projects in the central and southern California areas.
