

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE --ROGER L BROWN

MANAGING PARTNER

1991-Present

R Brown Consulting Group LLC, Portland, Oregon

Construction consulting firm serving clients throughout United States

- Provides consulting services to contractors and owners in preparation and/or defending of claims which includes review of means and methods, schedule analysis, technical problem solving, cost evaluations, and labor productivity impacts. Has provided expert witness testimony in State, County Federal Courts and Arbitrations.
- Serves as a third party neutral, mediator and arbitrator to the construction industry.
- Provides on-site management of construction projects for sureties due to contractor defaults.
- Provides constructability reviews and budget estimates to design firms for major public works projects.

Has provided consulting services on over 200 projects including Heavy Civil; highways, light rail, airports, bridges, site utilities, marine facilities including pile driving and shoring, mass excavation and dredging, waste and water treatment facilities, power including hydro and steam turbine, Commercial; hospitals, nursing homes, public schools and university facilities, office buildings, shopping centers, Residential; condos, apartments and single family dwellings,

Dispute Resolution Boards:

- Extensive experience serving on DRB both as a Member and Chair, over some 60 projects with total volume exceeding 4 billion dollars. Has heard over 100 disputes ranging from 5 thousand to 8 million dollars all of which have been resolved without formal litigation. As chair has written many reasoned opinions which the parties agreed with the DRB rational for their recommendations. Currently serving on some 12 projects totaling 1.5 billion in construction volume.
- Has extensive experience with the DRB concept and was a charter member of the DRBF (Dispute Resolution Board Foundation). Assisted in the original drafting of the DRBF manual and has conducted training seminars for potential DRB members, Contractors and Owners throughout the USA. Over the past 10 years has been a Board member of the DRBF, President of Region I, (USA and CA), and currently Past President of the Executive Board for the entire world organization.
- In addition to serving as an Arbitrator and Mediator during the past several years has resolved disputes using the neutral expert evaluation process and facilitated settlements of major disputes on three projects totaling 220 million dollars in volume and disputes totaling over 40 million dollars. These included a state prison facility, a private rehabilitation of an existing commercial facility and a high profile public institution re-habilitation and addition.

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT

1986-1991

Brinderson Corporation, Irvine, California

Responsible for marketing, estimating and operations of major contracts for national general contractor with annual volume of 200 million dollars per year. Projects totaling over one billion dollars in construction volume included highway structures, marine facilities, process and industrial facilities, commercial and government buildings, infrastructure work.

VICE PRESIDENT, HEAVY CONSTRUCTION DIVISION 1971-1985
Riedel International, Portland, Oregon

Responsible for procurement and construction operations of heavy civil projects for multi-faceted International Company. The Heavy Construction Division's volume was approximately 50 million dollars annually. Served as Estimator, Project Manager, Operations Manger and VP. Projects included bridges, marine, buildings, jetties and coal loading facilities throughout West Coast and Canada.

FIELD ENGINEER 1968-1971
Al Johnson Construction Company, Minneapolis, Minnesota

Engineer on 100 million dollar Eisenhower Tunnel in Colorado and a 12 million dollar pump facility for California Department of Water Resources.

ASSISTANT HIGHWAY ENGINEER 1959-1968
California Department of Transportation, Marysville and San Diego, California

Supervised Design Squad for preparation of major interstate freeway contracts.
Inspector on variety of highway projects throughout Northern California.
Lead Engineer in Advance Planning Department.

ASSOCIATIONS & CERTIFICATIONS

- American Arbitration Association, Arbitrator on Commercial Panels
- Certification as Commercial Mediator (Construction)
- Disputes Resolution Board Foundation, Inc., Charter Member
- Associated General Contractors, Member, former Board Member
- Member of the Beavers

EDUCATION

1954-56 Linfield College, Liberal Arts
1959-67 Yuba College and San Diego City College, Engineering

Special Studies including training courses in CPM scheduling, claim preparation and defense, construction accounting, management techniques and Wharton School of Business