

Training

Available through the Office of GIS

Training Program

- Instructor-led Courses
 - ESRI Authorized Trainer Program
 - Individualized Skill Development
- Online Courses
 - ESRI Virtual Campus Annual Subscription

Benefits to Department's Users

- Expediting delivery of authorized ESRI GIS training
- Lowering vendor service costs
- Minimizing staff travel impact
- Orienting future training towards local GIS development

Instructor-led GIS Courses

- ESRI Authorized Trainer Program
 - "Introduction to ArcGIS I"
 - "Working with ArcGIS Spatial Analyst"
 - Caltrans staff instructors

Service Areas

- North Region - Districts 1, 2 & 3
- Headquarters and District 4
- Central Region - Districts 5, 6, 9, & 10
- Districts 7 and 8
- Districts 11 and 12

Instructor-led GIS Courses

- ESRI Authorized Trainer Program
 - Local GIS Coordinator facilitates enrollment with HQ GIS Training Coordinator
 - Upgrading to ArcGIS 9.3 courses during 2009

Online GIS Training Courses

- ESRI Virtual Campus Subscription
 - Annual renewal
 - Over 40 different courses and seminars
 - Facilitated by local GIS Coordinator
 - Administered by HQ GIS Training Coordinator

Self-Study (Virtual Campus)
Web Course W	Written concepts or recorded lectures, hands-on software exercises, and an exam provided for self-study over the Internet. Courses with a recorded lecture require a broadband connection. Students must have access to the software to complete the exercises.	2-30 hours
Training Seminar TS	A recorded lecture and software demonstration provided for self-study over the Internet. Recordings are from our Live Training Seminars , and require a broadband connection.	1 hour