4.0 WARRANTY/LIABILITY OF NICHOLSON

Nicholson shall perform its work as set forth in this Proposal with due and reasonable diligence in accordance with practices and principles accepted in the industry. If such work contains deficiencies or defects in materials and/or workmanship, Nicholson sole obligation shall be to furnish such replacement materials and/or work as necessary to repair or replace its work. This warranty shall expire twelve (12) months after the substantial completion of Nicholson's work. In no circumstance shall Nicholson or any of its affiliates, their officers, agents, employees, subcontractors or suppliers of any tier be liable to the Purchaser and/or Owner, its successors and assigns, for incidental, liquidated, indirect or consequential damages, including cost and damages for the work of others.

6.0 DELAYS

Should Nicholson be delayed in the performance of the work as the result of increases in the scope of work, variation in subsurface conditions, obstructions, additional work, design changes, load requirements or fire, lightning, earthquake or other natural disaster or as a result of labor disputes, strikes, civil insurrection, governmental action or for any other reason which is beyond the control of Nicholson then (1) the time herein fixed for completion of the work shall be extended for a period equivalent to the time lost by reason of the cause(s) aforesaid and (2) Purchaser shall pay to Nicholson that amount of costs, mark-ups, fees and expenses resulting from such delay including, those associated with the shutdown, interruption and resumption of the work.

7.0 HAZARDOUS MATERIALS

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Purchaser hereby assumes exclusive liability for, and shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Nicholson and its subsidiaries and affiliated companies from and against any and all claims, suits, losses, or damages, including attorneys' fees, arising out of or relating to claims made against Nicholson in connection with the provision of services pursuant to this agreement arising under and out of any and all environmental statutes, rules and regulations.

Selling price will be adjusted for:

- 8.1 Increases or decreases in the scope of services.
- 8.2 Changes requested by Purchaser after drawings and other documents have been developed in accordance with previously agreed planning.

- 8.3 Acceleration of the project schedule that demands overtime from Nicholson personnel.
- 8.4 Nicholson has not performed an independent geotechnical investigation of the subsurface ground conditions on or near the work site, but has relied on the information supplied with the bid documents as reasonably sufficient on which to base its Proposal estimations. If the ground, structure, or site conditions differ from those that Nicholson could reasonably have foreseen, or underground obstructions (i.e. wood/steel piles, utilities) are encountered having regard to the information supplied to it and referred to in this Proposal.
- 8.5 Inadequate or non-performance of services or facilities to be provided by Purchaser and/or Owner as called for, but not limited to, those items listed in the Proposal.
- 8.6 Changes in the services necessitated by enactment or revision of codes, laws or regulations subsequent to the date of the agreement between the parties.
- 8.7 If during the Proposal/award period or during the course of a project, a construction material is impacted in availability, delivery and/or price which results from certain material markets experiencing significant, industry-wide economic fluctuation (Event), then Nicholson will notify the Purchaser in writing within 30 days from the date of impact. In the event of an increase in material price, the contract or unit price shall be increased to reflect the increased cost to Nicholson caused by the Event, but such cost associated with the increase shall not include any overhead and profit. If there is unavailability of a material due to an Event, then Nicholson shall be entitled to a time extension and adjustment in the contract price. Nicholson shall not be liable to the Purchaser for any expenses, losses, and/or damages (including liquidated) from a delay resulting from an Event.

If changes in the scope of services require adjustments to the selling price or schedule, Nicholson, at its discretion, may proceed with the changes only after agreement on those adjustments has been reduced to writing.

9.0 AUDIT PRIVILEGES

Purchaser has no right to audit any work performed under an agreement that is paid on the basis of lump-sum or the make-up of any unit-price(s) (i.e., extra-work, change orders, agreement).

If Owner and/or Purchaser fails to provide such tax exemption certificate or certificates, then Purchaser will reimburse Nicholson for all costs incurred by Nicholson resulting from the failure of Purchaser to provide any such tax exemption certificate, including any obligation to pay sales, use or other tax that is applicable or may become applicable to the rendering of services or collection of fees pursuant to this Proposal.

11.0 TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT

If for any reason, Purchaser should wish to discontinue Nicholson's services, Purchaser is at liberty, after thirty (30) calendar days notice in writing, to terminate Nicholson's Agreement. In the event that Nicholson is in breach of Agreement, the Purchaser shall notify Nicholson and if the breach still remains after seven (7) calendar days notice, the Purchaser is at liberty to immediately terminate Nicholson's Agreement. In the event that this Agreement is terminated by either party herein,

Purchaser shall pay to Nicholson all billings for work completed through the date of termination, plus any amounts committed by Nicholson as of the termination date, plus Nicholson's reasonable billings for work occasioned by the termination, less the sums Nicholson shall have already been paid on account of the work performed.

12.0 CONFLICTING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Purchaser's acceptance of this Proposal, issuance of a purchase order in response to this Proposal, acceptance of the services rendered pursuant to this Proposal or payment therefore will constitute acceptance of and agreement to all of the terms and conditions contained in Nicholson's Proposal and this Attachment A. In the event of a conflict between the terms and conditions contained in any purchase order or any other document and the terms and conditions in the Proposal or this Attachment A, the Purchaser agrees that the terms and conditions in this Proposal and Attachment A will govern and be enforceable.

13.0 UTILITIES

Nicholson will not be liable for any damage to any utilities not properly located, marked, or protected. Furthermore, it is possible that damage may occur as a result of heave, settlement or intrusion caused by grout material due to the unforeseeable condition of the ground and/or the existing condition of the utility.
