KNOWLEDGE, ABILITIES, AND ANALYTICAL REQUIREMENTS

Knowledge of the principles and practices in public and business administration, including personnel management, classification and pay issues, labor relations, and employee supervision, development and training; Caltrans policies and procedures, safety, health, and equal opportunity objectives; legal principles and practices with particular reference to the laws governing public offices and agencies; trial and appellate court procedure; and the rules/laws of evidence. Demonstrated positive attitude and a commitment to conduct business in a professional manner in dealing with the public and department clients and provide quality customer service to all customers. Ability to research, understand, interpret and articulate applicable employment laws, rules and regulations; prepare and conduct actions and proceedings before administrative law bodies; analyze and apply legal principles and precedents to particular sets of facts; present oral statements of fact, law, and argument clearly and logically; provide clear, concise, and effective written actions and documentation; and to deal tactfully, professionally, and confidentially with all internal and external customers and contacts.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR DECISIONS AND CONSEQUENCES OF ERROR

Improper direction and recommendations could severely impact managers' and supervisors' ability to discipline employees. This could result in loss of management's confidence in the disciplinary process. Inefficient and ineffective presentations of the Department's response to employee's appeals that result in the administrative law judge overruling the Department's adverse action may generate civil actions by employees and severe financial liability to the state. Poor performance by the SSM I may also consequently affect Caltrans' ability to pursue effective negotiations with labor unions concerning resolution of disciplinary and non-punitive actions and diminish the Department's reputation with SPB and DPA. Responsible for complying with the Information Practices Act (IPA), Civil Code section 1798, et seq., by protecting departmental employees' confidential information, including, but not limited to, social security numbers, medical or employment history, education, financial transactions, or similar information. Failure to protect departmental employee's confidential information may damage DHR's reputation as a confidential organization and result in employee grievances or lawsuits. Intentional violation of this Act may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

PUBLIC AND INTERNAL CONTACTS

Independently confers with all levels of Caltrans directorate, management and staff, employee representatives, Legal Division attorneys, Audits and Investigations Office, Employment Opportunity Office, and SPB and DPA staff.

PHYSICAL, MENTAL, AND EMOTIONAL REQUIREMENTS

Employees may be required to sit for long periods of time using a keyboard and video display terminal or traveling in a vehicle to other locations; will be involved with sustained mental activity needed for analysis, reasoning and problem solving; must be able to develop and maintain cooperative working relationships, recognize emotionally charged issues, problems or difficult situations and respond appropriately, tactfully, and professionally; and must be able to work independently.

WORK ENVIRONMENT

While at their base of operation, employees will work in a climate-controlled office under artificial lighting. Employees will be required to travel to district offices and field locations throughout the State to interview staff, gather information, appear at hearings, and make presentations to managers and supervisors.

I have read, understand and can perform the duties listed above. (If you believe you may require reasonable accommodation, please discuss this with your hiring supervisor. If you are unsure whether you require reasonable accommodation, inform the hiring supervisor who will discuss your concerns with the Reasonable Accommodation Coordinator.)
