

SUSAN HARRINGTON, Office Chief of State Policy, Research and Capital

In Caltrans' Division of Mass Transportation

Education

Master's Degree in Public Administration

Experience

Currently the Office Chief in Caltrans' Division of Mass Transportation Office of Policy, Research and Capital

- Implement the Caltrans Director's BRT policy on the state system
- Implement the Caltrans Buspool and Park and Ride Study
- Manage the $3.6 Billion Prop 1B Bond Public Transportation Account
- Manage the $500 million STIP capital projects for transit-related systems
- Develop strategies for implementing AB 32 for mass transportation on state system
- Develop the agenda for Caltrans' transit research
- Monitor and track mass transportation data
- Develop strategies for implementing transit oriented developments

Relevant past experience:

Caltrans Budget Office Chief

Responsible for fiscal and budgetary planning and control methods of a $3 billion budget for statewide transportation needs. Organize and plan for the support budget needs of 23,000 Caltrans employees.

Program Manager for Environmental Enhancement and Mitigation Program and State/Federal Transportation Improvement Program (STIP/FSTIP)

Acting Office Chief, Division of Research and Innovation

Assistant to the Director, Special Assignment

Research and Associate Management Analyst