

2004/2005 Awarded Transportation Planning Grants

Environmental Justice Transportation Planning Grants
CT District	Grant Recipient <small>(sub-recipients in italics)</small>	Project Name	County	Project Description	Grant Award
1	Manchester Point Arena Band of Pomo Indians/ Action Network	Windy Hollow Bridge Feasibility Study	Mendocino	The Manchester Point Arena Band of Indians and Action Network will conduct a study for a much-needed bridge over the Garcia River to join the Manchester and the Point Arena Rancherias for better access to services and health care and to provide a needed route when State Route 1 is closed due to slides.	yes
3	City of Sacramento	Strawberry Manor Infill Circulation Plan	Sacramento	The City of Sacramento will conduct a study that looks at smart growth principals of a low income and ethnically diverse neighborhood that is in need of economic development and major infrastructure improvements.	yes
3	Sacramento Area Council of Governments (SACOG)	Multilingual Transit and Alternative modes Public Information and Outreach Program in Sacramento Area Council of Governments (SACOG) Region	El Dorado, Placer, Sacramento, Sutter, Yolo, and Yuba	SACOG will develop a multilingual transit and alternative transportation modes (e.g. carpooling, vanpooling, bicycling, and walking) public information and outreach program for transit operators and transportation management associations within the SACOG Region as well as identify unmet needs in an ethnically diverse area.	yes
4	San Francisco Department of Public Health/ San Francisco Study Center	Bayview Hunters Point Pedestrian Safety Planning Project	San Francisco	San Francisco Department of Public Health and the San Francisco Study Center will bring together community focus groups to study how to reduce pedestrian injuries among the youth and senior citizens in the economically depressed Bayview Hunters Point area of San Francisco.	yes
4	Contra Costa County Redevelopment Agency	North Richmond Truck Route Project	Contra Costa	Contra Costa County Redevelopment Agency will develop a plan utilizing community involvement to redirect the heavy truck traffic away from residences and an elementary school to improve safety and air quality.	yes

2004/2005 Awarded Transportation Planning Grants

Environmental Justice Transportation Planning Grants
CT District	Grant Recipient (sub-recipients in italics)	Project Name	County	Project Description	Grant Award
6	City of Firebaugh/ Local Government Commission	Highway 33 and Downtown Firebaugh Linkage Study: Context-Sensitive Planning for Community Revitalization	Fresno	City of Firebaugh, Local Government Commission will conduct public forums and develop a plan for redeveloping the downtown area linking it to Highway 33 and by discussing alternatives for improving walk ability and attractiveness of the downtown Firebaugh area.	yes
6	Fresno COG/ Lao Veterans of American Institute (LVAI)	Southeast Asian Transit Ridership Awareness Project	Fresno	The Fresno Council of Governments and Lao Veterans of America Institute will focus on improving the ridership of Fresno County's large Hmong and Laotian population, most being low income and 65% do not read or write English well.	yes
7	Los Angeles Department of Transportation	Little Tokyo/Arts District Transit Oriented Community Development	Los Angeles	The Los Angeles Department of Transportation proposes a study and analysis of vacant sites and brown fields in the Little Tokyo and Arts District area of Los Angeles for potential infill and transit-oriented development that will enhance access to a planned light rail (Metro Gold Line) station.	yes
7	City of El Monte	Transportation Connections and Safety in the City of El Monte	Los Angeles	The City of El Monte will develop a plan that will utilize extensive community outreach in formalizing a more livable smart growth vision of how the residents of El Monte want to see the city grow.	yes
8	City of Victorville/ Victor Valley College	Environmental Justice Planning League for the High Desert: Planning Transit Equity for the 21st Century	San Bernardino	The City of Victorville and Victor Valley College will develop a plan that seeks to improve outreach and planning, access, transit for education, jobs, and services for the low-income and minorities communities in the high desert area.	yes

2004/2005 Awarded Transportation Planning Grants

Environmental Justice Transportation Planning Grants
CT District	Grant Recipient <small>(sub-recipients in italics)</small>	Project Name	County	Project Description	Grant Award
8	City of San Bernardino	Interstate 210 (I-210) Corridor Enhancement Plan	San Bernardino	The City of San Bernardino will explore opportunities for economic development and improve the efficiency of transportation and land use while reducing negative impacts of the I-210 freeway extension.	yes
9	Bishop Indian Tribal Council	Bishop Reservation Pedestrian and Bicyclist Safety Improvements	Inyo	The Bishop Indian Tribal Council will seeks to improve public safety for pedestrians and bicyclists on tribal lands, such as school children, the elderly, and Tribal employees.	yes
10	City of Merced	Specific Plan Preparation of South Merced	Merced	The City of Merced will utilize community involvement and focus groups to develop a vision and plan for revitalizing the depressed area of South Merced.	yes
11	City of Brawley	From State Highway to Multi-Modal Main Street	Imperial	The City of Brawley will develop a plan to utilize community input and recommendations to design a revitalization plan for the downtown area, incorporating the principals of smart growth in designing a more livable community.	yes
12	City of Irvine	City of Irvine Long Range Transportation Plan Outreach Initiative	Orange	The City of Irvine will conduct extensive outreach to create a consensus vision for a multi-modal transportation system that addresses the unmet transit needs and serves all the people of the City of Irvine.	yes