NOTES:

This morning I was brought up to speed on where the most recent information on the Project Plans by being introduced to Victor Altamirano. He, Art Pannu, and I talked about how and where the updated plan sheets were to be dispersed and disseminated respectively. After this I went back to my desk and reviewed the plan sheets for the driving frame for Temporary Tower D.

In the afternoon Art Pannu and I went out to the barge where the driving frame is and took some measurements. This took until the end of the day.
