Description of Operation:

Gina Rizzardo is in the field today observing the welding and falsework removal. The contractor is removing the falsework on the South side of T1, under the driving frame. The welding was completed at the end of the week last week for the South frame of Tower D. On the North side of T1, the workers are starting to weld the connection plates between the pile and the driving frame.

The Western Gull fledgling is still walking around, and has been seen stretching its wings in preparation for flight.

OVERTIME: No overtime today.
