Subject: Daily Email

Everyone,

Thank you to those who have been sending in their daily email to Brian and me, but most of you have not been sending them. Please send these emails daily. They do not have to be long just brief and to the point.

Overall, one additional comment that has to be made and included for in the daily email - Contractor's man power. Next week, when additional crews come out to join this work, we need this information provided in your daily email.

Thanks,
Roman M. Granados
